RAHWAY, N. J., Aug. 31.—William Crane Squier, 94 years old, died here suddenly this morning. Mr. Suier leaves a fortune of over $1,000,000, invested for the most part in zinc mines. He was born in Rahway, where he has always lived, with the exception of a short stay in New Orleans forty years ago. He was a Trustee of the First Presbyterian Church here. The funeral will be held from his home on St. George's Avenue on Monday afternoon. Mr. Suier leaves a widow, to whom he was married in 1841.

Obituary Notes.

JAMES PALMER, father of Assemblyman George M. Palmer, died suddenly at his home in Richmondville, N. Y., yesterday.

The Rev. J. P. CAMPBELL, well known throughout West Virginia, Virginia, and Kentucky, died at Hinton, West Va., yesterday. He was 60 years old.

JOHN E. COSTIGAN died at his home, 794 Madison Street, in Brooklyn, on Thursday. He was born in that borough 66 years ago, and was for many years employed in the Custom House. He had also held positions in the Department of Charities in Brooklyn. He leaves a wife, a son, and two daughters.

CARL MAYER, who was for more than fifty years in the real estate business in Brooklyn, died on Thursday at his home, 152 Eldert Street, in that borough. He was 78 years old and a native of Germany. Mr. Mayer was a member of the Friedrich Glueck Quartet Club and other societies.

GEORGE W. PACK, one of the pioneers in the lumber trade of the Northwest, and formerly a resident of Cleveland, Ohio, died today at his Summer home at Southampton, L. I. Mr. Pack had practically made his home at Asheville, N. C., since 1885, and out of his large fortune contributed to many public enterprises in that city.

The New York Times
Published: September 1, 1906
Copyright © The New York Times