Minute adopted by the Board of Managers of the Coffee Exchange of the City of New York at a meeting held Feb. 7, 1906:

The Board of Managers have learned with deep regret of the death of their former colleague, the first Secretary of the Exchange, Mr. Francis B. Arnold, who in 1881 was one of the chief promoters of the establishment of this Exchange and who devoted his keen intellect and indefatigable efforts to the task of organizing the working basis of our institution, which has flourished and grown in importance far beyond the sanguine expectations of its charter members.

Though, owing to ill health, Mr. Arnold retired from the Exchange last year, the Board feels that, in thought, he remained a member until his untimely demise, and that his colleagues and the members of the Exchange owe to him a tribute of respect, gratitude, and appreciation.

It was therefore unaimously resolved, that the foregoing minute be entered upon the records of the Exchange, and that the sympathy and sorrow of the Exchange be expressed to Mr. Arnold's family, to whom a transcript of this record be sent.

PERCY B. O'SULLIVAN, President.
LOUIS SELIGSBERG, Secretary.
