

GEORGE M. PALMER MARRIED.

Democratic Leader in the Assembly
Weds Miss Corry of Cambridge, N. Y.

Special to The New York Times.

CAMBRIDGE, N. Y., July 14.—George M. Palmer of Cobleskill, the Democratic leader in the Assembly during the last session of the Legislature, and Miss Mary Corry, formerly of Boston, but now a resident of this town, were married here at noon to-day. Only the immediate members of the families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer left at once to spend their honeymoon in the Adirondacks. They will occupy Garret J. Benson's camp on Lake Piseco.

M. Palmer served his eighth term in the Assembly last year. He was born in Richmondville, Schoharie County, forty-three years ago, and occupies a leading place among the lawyers of that section of the State.

The New York Times

Published: July 15, 1906

Copyright © The New York Times