INTRODUCTION

Gordon Campbell was elected on May 16, 2001, and sworn in as Premier June 5, 2001, taking over from Ujjal Dosanjh. Campbell was chosen leader of the Liberal Party of British Columbia by a vote at the convention held on September 11, 1993, in Vancouver (Vancouver Province, 12 September 1993, "Campbell Rides New Grit Wave: First-Ballot Victory for Mayor," A4). First elected to the Legislative Assembly on February 17, 1994, after winning a Vancouver-Quilchena by-election, Campbell initially served in Opposition. He was later re-elected in 1996, 2001, 2005 and 2009 in the riding of Vancouver-Point Grey.

The choice of dates for the commencement and termination of a position is not straightforward because an appointment or resignation may be announced on one date and confirmed officially on a different date. Generally, the "official" date has been preferred in this document. If, however, there was no Order in Council (OIC) or other official notice specifically naming the minister involved, the announcement date has been used. This list does not include acting positions or parliamentary secretaries.

For the purposes of this document, the final date of service for cabinet ministers in the Dosanjh administration is June 5, 2001, the date Mr. Dosanjh's successor, Gordon Campbell, was sworn in as Premier. The OIC rescinding the appointment of cabinet ministers was issued on June 5, 2001, with the announcement of the new Campbell Cabinet. The OIC confirming the first appointment of cabinet ministers in Campbell's second term as Premier was issued on June 16, 2005. The OIC confirming the first appointment of cabinet ministers in Campbell's third term as Premier was issued on June 10, 2009. On November 3, 2010, Campbell announced his intention to resign after a new leader was selected at an upcoming Liberal leadership convention. Christy Clark was sworn in as Premier to replace Gordon Campbell on March 14, 2011.
